Content	There is one clear, well-focused topic. Main idea stands out and is supported by detailed information.	Main idea is clear, but the supporting information is limited in details, specificity, and lacks connection to main idea.	Main idea is somewhat clear, but there is a need for more supporting information.
Introduction (organization)	The introduction is inviting, states the main topic, and previews the structure of the paper.	The introduction clearly states the main topic and previews the structure of the paper, but it is not particularly inviting to the reader.	The introduction states the main topic, but does not adequately preview the structure of the paper nor is it particularly inviting to the reader.
Sequencing (organization)	Details are placed in a logical order and the way they are presented effectively keeps the interest of the reader.	Details are placed in a logical order. Details are often disconnected and the way they are presented sometimes makes the writing less interesting.	Some details are not in a logical or expected order, and this distracts the reader.
Flow & rhythm (sentence fluency)	All sentences sound natural and are easy to read when read aloud. Each sentence is clear and has an obvious emphasis.	Almost all sentences sound natural and are easy to read and comprehend when read aloud, but 1 or 2 are awkward or difficult to understand.	Most sentences sound natural and are easy to read and comprehend when read aloud, but several are awkward or difficult to understand.
Word choice	Writer uses vivid words and phrases that linger or draw pictures in the reader's mind, and the choice and placement of the words seems	Writer uses vivid words and phrases that linger or draw pictures in the reader's mind, but occasionally the words are used	Writer uses words that communicate clearly, but the writing lacks variety, punch, or flair.
